

The (first ever!) Entrepreneurial School Awards Took Place October 15th

Eleven schools from 11 countries across Europe (Denmark, Finland, Germany, Greece, Italy, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia and the United Kingdom) won The Entrepreneurial School Awards 2015, a national and European recognition of the best schools championing entrepreneurship education. The awards are part of The Entrepreneurial School initiative.

The ceremony was hosted in the European Parliament by EE-HUB MEP Ambassador Michaela Sojdrova. 13 MEP Ambassadors were present to award the schools from their countries.

Read more here

New MEP Ambassadors

Miriam Dalli (Malta) and Merja Kyllönen (Finland) joined the network as Ambassadors.

Miriam Dalli (Malta)

Merja Kyllönen (Finland)

Latest MEP blogs:

- Three questions for Michaela Sojdrova
- Bridging the skills gap with entrepreneurship education (Martina Dlabajova)

EE-HUB Blog

The importance of teachers as mentors and role models for students (Juergen Siebel)

Entrepreneurship education in South East Europe & Turkey (Thomas Farnell)

Entrepreneurial Learning: formal vs. in- and non-formal education and training (Radmil Polenakovikj)

EE-HUB Experts

www.ee-hub.eu

#EEhubEU

Upcoming Events

January 2016
(date to be confirmed directly to EE-HUB experts)
Belgium

Face-to-Face Meeting for EE-HUB Experts

In January EE-HUB Experts will meet for a second time in Belgium to analyse, discuss and finalise the work done by the working groups (this is a closed event only for EE-HUB experts). More details and the date will be published on the events section of the EE-HUB website.

External News

"Boosting investment in education: Let's make it happen!"
Read more here

EU dialogues with citizens on education with Commissioner Navracsics in Rome
Read more here

Opinion - Skills policies for fighting youth unemployment
Read more here

Tibor Navracsics, Commissioner for Education, Culture, Youth and Sport speech at the occasion of a joint event by the European Commission and the European Investment Bank "Education and the Investment Plan for Europe", attended by JA Europe.

EU dialogues with citizens held in Rome to discuss how can the European Fund for Strategic Investments support the education sector; the new priorities for European cooperation in education and training; and the role of education in promoting social inclusion.

MEP Zdzisław Krasnodebski (Rapporteur) is the driving force behind the Opinion of the Committee on Culture and Education that came out on the 19th of October for the Committee on Employment and Social Affairs.

Consortium Partners

Partners

